Recommendations

Bartosz is one of the best and most humble developers I've ever worked with. He is laser focused on the product, driven, understands both the users' perspective and business needs, writes great code and can strike a conversation with anyone. I've worked with him on multiple projects for over a year and I'd gladly work with him again in the future - anyone would be lucky to have him as a colleague or employee.

forward to the next opportunity for cooperation!

Bartek is one of the most reliable developers that I worked with. He communicates very well with the client and his English is great. He takes care of a good atmosphere in the team, making jokes, etc.

He works efficiently and keeps the top quality. I enjoyed working with him for being reliable, creative, and focused on good solutions for the client. I loved working with him and looking
